Kunming Saporo Italia Food Co. Ltd is a foreign-owned company (WFOE) co-founded and operated by three Italian business men since 2008. From that day on, the company has worked in distribution of high-quality imported food, production of Italian food for catering services as well as in running Italian restaurants and bars.

Saporo Italia is located in Kunming, capital city of Yunnan Province, in the deep Southwest of China. Saporo Italia has already established stable business relationships with hundreds of clients all over S/W China, especially in Yunnan. Most of our clients are Chinese people, but we also cooperate with almost all the cafés and restaurants of the Province which are run by foreign people.

Saporo Italia supplies western restaurants of all kinds, from small family-run kitchens to high-end concept dining with large quantities of goods and is also able to accommodate small orders for private clients.

We cover a wide variety of imported food items like olive oil, pasta, cheese, cured meats, as well as wines and spirits that we purchase from the biggest importers located on the East coast (Guangzhou, Shanghai, etc).

All of our suppliers are among China's biggest food trading companies.

We are only distributors in Yunnan of one of the main importer of Italian wines in China, offering a wide range of most refined Italian wines. We can therefore propose to our clients to help them building a wine lists pairing the food already presented on their menus, training the restaurants employees to serve wine correctly and also organize sommelier certified courses for small groups, as well as professional wine tasting for private clients and restaurants.

We often cooperate with Italian chefs to provide catering services for fashion shows, hotel openings, sport events and also private parties.

Also, we offer consulting for kitchen opening or menu redesigning, combining the perfect balance between low cost and high quality and taste.

We fully cover all Yunnan area through our retail and wholesale shops located in Kunming, Dali and Lijiang, while we use the fastest and most reliable logistics to transport our goods towards the south part of the Province.

Come and join Saporo Italia for your real Chinese working experience, in the most beautiful and interesting S/E Asian Province, dealing with Italian food and becoming an expert of Chinese language in the food sector!
