

WeWorld Onlus

The company

Location	Nepal
Type of business	International Cooperation
Job function	International Cooperation

Trainee's profile

Languages required	English
Faculty	Political Science / Policies for international development cooperation
Computer skills	MS Office applications
Required skills	Knowledge of Project Cycle Management, ability in writing cooperation project (BEST IF MAE, UE), data and report analysis

Job description

Job content

Responsibilities and duties

The intern will be assigned to support the Project Manager in the following activities:

- Writing proposal projects with increasing degree of autonomy
- Support in the reporting and analyzing and collecting data projects

Experiences and knowledge

- The internship is for undergraduate (masterful students) with a focus on international cooperation
- Experience (however short but significant) in writing projects. Will be a plus to have gained experience in the writing of European or MAE projects
- Knowledge of the Logical Framework and the Project Cycle Management
- Experience (however short) working or volunteering abroad
- Fluency in written and spoken English

Skills and Capacity

- Good organizational skills in planning their work on time allocated
- Ability to work under pressure
- Natural predispositions to relations with people of different backgrounds (local staff, partners, local Ministries) and culture
- Flexibility and autonomy
- Real interest and predisposition to work in the development of countries

Notes

Round trip flights, insurances, monthly reimbursement € 400 net